

60 of people defecating in the open in world live in India WHO report

About 60 of people in the world practicing open defecation live in India a joint report published by the WHO and UNICEF has estimated the Rajya Sabha was told on Monday

PM Modi concludes Nepal visit assures help to bolster ties

Modis twoday visit first by an Indian prime minister in over 17 years has been hailed as a milestone that would take the tenuous relations between the two neighbours to new heights

Malin landslide survivors asked to relocate

The district administration on Sunday put up notices on the houses that survived the landslide The villagers through the notice were asked to vacate their homes and relocate to other places

Navy chief Robin Dhowan begins Canada visit

Admiral Robin Dhowan will kick off his fourday visit to Canada on Tuesday his first after taking over as navy chief in April

Govt says English marksnbspwont be counted aspirants want scrapping of CSAT paper

Not satisfied with the changes announced by the government in the UPSC exam scores of civil services aspirants vowed on Monday to continue their fight for complete scrapping of the CSAT paper

Nobody in Goa is below the poverty line minister

Civil supply minister Dayanand Mandrekar on Monday raised eye brows in the legislative assembly with his claim that no resident of Goa fell in below the poverty line category

Telangana 3 yrold boy found murdered mother unconscious

A threeyearold boy was found murdered and his mother in an unconscious condition on the outskirts of Mujahidpura village in neighbouring Ranga Reddy district of Telangana on Monday police said

Cong rumblings Dwivedi says organisation should have ability to listen

An organisation should have the ability to listen as well senior Congress leader Janardan Dwivedi said on Monday at a time when a party leader has gone to the extent of saying that Sonia Gandhi and Rahul Gandhi needed to take a break in the wake of the Lok Sabha poll debacle

ITC hikes price of select cigarette brands by up to Rs 10pack

Diversified conglomerate ITC has raised the prices of select cigarette brands like Classic and Gold Flake Kings by up to Rs 10pack in the wake of hike in excise duty on cigarettes in the budget

MP judge accused of sexual harassment says ready for death penalty if found guilty

A controversy broke out on Monday after reports that an additional district and sessions judge in Gwalior had quit her job accusing a judge of the Madhya Pradesh high court of sexual harassment. Will this hurt peoples confidence in judiciary